Associated Industries of Massachusetts

AIM's International Business Council (AIM-IBC) helps Massachusetts employers engage in international trade and expand their global business activities. AIM-IBC services include seminars on emerging markets, trade regulations, and strategies for global expansion; global trade awards recognizing excellence and leadership in international trade; referrals to connect businesspeople, firms, and the media with international trade experts; and an e-newsletter. Associated Industries of Massachusetts (AIM) works to improve the state's economic climate by reducing business expenses, keeping regulations fair and reasonable, and ensuring a skilled and educated workforce.
